

A Pastor's Thoughts

Psalm 119:89-96

Lamedh

*Forever, O LORD, your word is firmly fixed in the heavens.
Your faithfulness endures to all generations;
you have established the earth, and it stands fast.
By your appointment they stand this day,
for all things are your servants.
If your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.
I will never forget your precepts,
for by them you have given me life.
I am yours; save me,
for I have sought your precepts.
The wicked lie in wait to destroy me,
but I consider your testimonies.
I have seen a limit to all perfection,
but your commandment is exceedingly broad.*

God's word is permanent in all of creation on Earth and Heaven. His word does not waiver, wear out, or change. It is the same today as it was in the beginning, and will be the same in the end. The word of God stands through all generations. The very word that created the earth and all that is in it, created each one of us. It is by His word that we have life. Not just this short season on earth, but life for all eternity. In obedience, we show the mark of true Christians remembering His word and seeking to know His word. Nothing can come against the truth of His word. The idea of perfection given to us by this world falls exceedingly short of the true perfection of His commandments. The word of God is perfect.
