

He

*Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes;
and I will keep it to the end.
Give me understanding, that I may keep your law
and observe it with my whole heart.
Lead me in the path of your commandments,
for I delight in it.
Incline my heart to your testimonies,
and not to selfish gain!
Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things;
and give me life in your ways.
Confirm to your servant your promise,
that you may be feared.
Turn away the reproach that I dread,
for your rules are good.
Behold, I long for your precepts;
in your righteousness give me life!*

No one can teach like God can teach. When we have the Holy Spirit as our teacher, we can do no better. How great it is to be taught by the One True God! We can totally trust all He gives us in His word. He gives by grace an understanding that inclines us to wholeheartedly follow in His ways, and it is a joy to us that is unsurpassable.

As we walk on the road to life, pray for God's grace to keep you from turning back toward things of this world that are worthless. Our great God has promised salvation by grace, through Jesus Christ our Lord and King. He has and always will keep His promises. The focus must be on Christ alone as we face trials and temptations along this pilgrimage on earth. It is Him that makes us righteous. It is Him that gives us life. It is His word that teaches us. Long for the word of God and you will find everlasting life.
