

A Pastor's Thoughts

Psalm 119:41-48

Waw

*Let your steadfast love come to me, O LORD,
your salvation according to your promise;
then shall I have an answer for him who taunts me,
for I trust in your word.*

*And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth,
for my hope is in your rules.*

*I will keep your law continually, forever and ever,
and I shall walk in a wide place, for I have sought your precepts.*

*I will also speak of your testimonies before kings
and shall not be put to shame,*

for I find my delight in your commandments, which I love.

*I will lift up my hands toward your commandments, which I love,
and I will meditate on your statutes.*

What do you trust in? If it is of man, then you will be ultimately disappointed. If it is material possessions, they will pass away. Only God's word will stand forever. It is through His word that we have steadfast love, salvation, hope, confidence, and delight.

How great is God's word toward us that are His? It is the answer for all the problems of this world. It is a solid place for us to conduct our lives. It is where we can stand with integrity. Nothing of this world can shake us from this perfect foundation.

How do we respond to the knowledge of God's word? We lift up our hands. We worship the One who created everything. The One who's words are life. We return faithfully and continually to drink of the fountain, His word.
