

Psalm 68:4

Sing to God,

sing praises to his name;

lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts;

his name is the LORD;

exult before him!

None ever hardened his heart against God, and prospered. God is the joy of his people, then let them rejoice when they come before him. He who derives his being from none, but gives being to all, is engaged by promise and covenant to bless his people. He is to be praised as a God of mercy and tender compassion. He ever careth for the afflicted and oppressed: repenting sinners, who are helpless and exposed more than any fatherless children, are admitted into his family, and share all their blessings. - Matthew Henry, MHCC
